

TAXONOMY CODE – UPDATE

February 8, 2008

Good news:

Kendall Eckert, DR, RCR, was notified on February 8, 2008 that he is the FIRST Reflexologists in the nation to receive his assigned NPI (National Provider Identification) number. He will be able to begin using the number after April 1, 2008 as a provider to assist his many clients, including those on Medicare, to bill for reimbursement through their insurance companies (providers). Kendall will keep us posted on his progress.

Please see the article: Taxonomy Code for Reflexologists, a PDF on the RAA website: www.reflexology-usa.org (click on “Articles and interviews from the front page and it will take you there. Or, read the article in the RAA magazine, Reflexology Across America, Winter Issue.
